Cornwall Law Society is delighted to be welcoming Professor Dominic Regan back to Cornwall for his Civil Litigation Update 2018.

Dominic Regan qualified as a solicitor and is the most prolific speaker on legal issues in the country today. The lawyers' lawyer, Dominic provides advice to a number of Government departments including the Ministry of Defence and HM Revenue and Customs. He is also a special adviser to the Association of Costs Lawyers.

In addition to this, Dominic works closely with local authorities, law firms and international companies to advise on and provide legal training.

Dominic has advised Lord Justice Jackson on costs budgeting and management. He has also worked alongside HH Judge Simon Brown QC who pioneered active case/costs management.

Dominic is Professor of Law at City University London, and a contributor to the New Law Journal and the Times.

A much sought-after speaker, he is often booked by clients up to 2 years ahead.

The specific content of the 2018 Update will be determined closer to the seminar date to ensure it is bang up-to-date for delegates.
