

Cornwall Law Society

Family - Private & Public Law Seminar

presented by: Barristers of Magdalen Chambers, Exeter on Tuesday, 11th September 2018 - 9.30am - 4.30pm
(registration and refreshments from 9am)

Venue: Lanhydrock Hotel & Golf Club, Bodmin

This is an initial flyer to share content of the seminar; a full programme, with timings, will follow in due course.

Seminar 1 - How to deal with the evidence of children and vulnerable witnesses

- PD3AA - who is vulnerable witness. participation directions
- The Advocates Gateway Toolkits
- Special measures
- Adapting questioning and procedures
- Practical examples

Seminar 2 - Adoption - what next?

- The legal requirements
- “Nothing else will do” & developments after Re B
- the future of adoption: moving towards a less draconian approach?

Seminar 3 - Finding the Facts: The practice and procedure of private law fact-finding hearings

Including:

- The revised PD12J.
- How to prepare a Scott Schedule.
- Disclosure - what to look for.
- Covert recordings and their role. The role of the criminal law.
- Appealing an adverse judgment.
- What next - after the findings.

