Website Update

www.cornwalllawsociety.org.uk

As with any new website there are teething problems so please bear with us as we tackle them. In particular we have had to tweak how firms and members are linked and appear on the different pages. I am working my way through the membership database to update as quickly as I can, but do let me know if there is an issue with your account/listing.

If you haven't already activated your account, you simply need to go to the login button and enter your email address which is your username* and click on the forgotten password and follow the instructions from there.

Members entitled to Free Membership will have their username* set as firstname.surname because usernames are fixed but our Free Members will, hopefully, go on to be fully qualified Full Members in due course.
